

Certificate in Home Energy Awareness (Level 1)

Page 1: Course Information

The Certificate in Home Energy Awareness is designed to help professionals and volunteers working with households to become better equipped to support their clients to achieve a healthy home. In this one-day course participants will become aware of the main components of a healthy home and key issues related to energy use in New Zealand homes. Course participants will also learn when and where to refer clients to other services.

2018 Course fees

The following table indicates the appropriate registration fee for your organisation. Please note that the fee covers training (including exam), catering for the day, and your course materials.

HPA Partners (CEN, Beacon, Toimata Foundation)	$550.00 + GST
NGO's, Charities and NFP	$660.00 + GST
All other organisations	$860.00 + GST

Payment is required no later than 2 weeks prior to the start of the course (sorry we are unable to accept credit card payments). You will receive confirmation of acceptance onto the Home Performance Advisors course and an invoice for course fees within 5 working days of us receiving this completed registration form. Note the finances for HPA are managed by Beacon Pathway Incorporated who will send out the invoices. Please ensure your invoice is paid in advance of the course.

Cancellation of your registration will be refunded in full if received 1 month prior to the start date of the training. A 25% administration fee will be charged for cancellation received between 1 month and 2 weeks prior from the start date and no refund will be provided if cancellation is received with 2 weeks of the start date.

Passing Level 1, Home Energy Awareness via an open book test at the end of the course is a pre-requisite to the Level 2, Home Energy Awareness certification.

I acknowledge that if I do not pass the test and I wish to continue with the HPA programme I can either re-sit the test (a small administration fee will be charged), or I can re-enrol in the Certificate in Home Energy Awareness (level 1) at full cost (and must pass the test.)
